DOUMO

Doumo is a Japanese expression that invites you to sit – our “yes, please” in response to the question “may I sit down?” The Doumo collection is as courteous and kind as its name. Slight roundness and convexities break the pattern of straight lines that characterize it, filling the flat surfaces with softness, without disturbing the purity of the lines. Doumo is a collection of sofas and armchairs that, thanks to freely interpretable color schemes, fit easily in tune with workspaces or spartan and essential domestic areas.
